

GRAMMARIAN

Role Guide Version 2.2

Responsibilities

Being a grammarian is truly an exercise in expanding your listening skills. You have four basic responsibilities. Please use the grammarian's tally sheet.

- 1) Comment on the correct use of the English language during the course of the meeting and then provide constructive feedback.
- 2) Comment on any good usage of the English language
- 3) Prepare the Word and Quote/Idiom of the Day before the meeting, and let VP Education or the deputy VP Education know.
- 4) Comment how many times the Word of the Day (and the Idiom of the Day) was mentioned during the meeting.

CL Manual Process

This role will also count towards to several projects in the CL manual. Please bring your manual and find your evaluator so you can receive credit towards your CL certification.

Materials

Grammarian's tally sheet, a pen

Preparation and Procedure

- 1) Before the meeting: Choose the Word of the Day and the Quote/Idiom of the Day following the meeting theme. You can choose between a Quote or an Idiom.
- 2) During the meeting: Use the grammarian's tally sheet and get ready to write down comments about each speaker from the beginning of the meeting until the evaluation session. Give your report when the General Evaluator calls upon you during the evaluation session.

Script

Good evening Toastmasters and welcomed guests, my name is and I am tonight's grammarian. I will be listening for inappropriate usage of English grammar and also make comments on good uses of grammar and memorable phrases. In addition, I will check how many times we use the Word of the day (and the Idiom of the day), and report them later during the evaluation session. Now I give my control back to the Toastmaster.
